Alabama ASA Pick Up Player Form

Alabama ASA Pick Up Player Rule: After a player has played in the District Tournament (1st Level of Championship Play) he/she can be a Pick Up Player on another team as long as their original team does not advance to the State Tournament. An Alabama ASA Pick Up Player Form MUST be completed for the player to be legal and MUST be completed prior to July 1 of the current year. A team may pick up a maximum of three (3) players prior to the July 1 deadline for State Tournament play. The player(s) being picked up MUST have participated in the District Tournament, not just listed on a roster. All pick up players must meet all ASA Classification Guidelines.

- The Pick Up Player must be from the Local Association (Alabama).
- Form MUST be signed by a member of the Alabama ASA Staff before the Player may participate.
- If an Adult Player: MUST have a copy of the Players Drivers License attached.
- If a JO Youth Player: MUST have a copy of Player's Birth Certificate.
